Company: ACDI/VOCA

Location: Mozambique

Category: other-general

Overview

Since 1963 and in 148 countries, ACDI/VOCA has empowered people in developing and transitional nations to succeed in the global economy. Based in Washington, D.C., ACDI/VOCA is a nonprofit international development organization that designs and delivers technical and management solutions in agriculture, economic growth, and resilience to promote economic prosperity and social inclusion.

Deputy Chief of Party/Director of Implementation, Mozambique

ACDI/VOCA is seeking a Deputy Chief of Party/Director of Implementation (DCOP/DOI) for the Mais Zambezia (+Z) component of the anticipated Coastal Livelihoods and Climate Resilience (CLCR) Project. The project focuses on sustainable development in coastal Zambezia, Mozambique, enhancing the management of coastal resources, local socio-economic development, and the fisheries sector.

The DCOP/DOI will guide research and implementation across two project phases. They will also lead strategy meetings with the Chief of Party to examine the project's progress. Additionally, they will oversee consulting and staff work for quality and innovation and build stakeholder relationships for collaborative project implementation, including with the local community, the government of Mozambique, the private sector, and other development actors. The program is anticipated to start in 2024, and this position will be based in Quelimane, Mozambique.

Responsibilities

Guide the research and the implementation phases, ensuring strategic and effective

project execution

Lead strategy meetings with the COP, team members, and partners to analyze progress and lessons learned, adapting the overall strategic vision, and leading the technical team in achieving project goals
